Ramapo Holiday Festivities Begin

November 27, 2007

The Town of Ramapo's Holiday Festivities got off to a rousing start on Thanksgiving night, with our sixth annual "Turkey Day Bingo" which took place on my "LIVE From Town Hall" weekly Cable TV Show. Members of the musical contingent "Up With People" also appeared on the broadcast, earlier in the day they performed in the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade. Once again all who participated had a great time, and expressed appreciation for their families and the Town of Ramapo. I hope that you and your family will participate in the following holiday events:

The Town of Ramapo's Big Screen Classic Movie Series at the Lafayette Theater, movies begin at 11:30 AM and pre-show organ music with Jeff Barker at 11:00 AM.

December 1st – Alfred Hitchcock's "The Lady Vanishes" starring Margaret Lockwood

December 8th – "Charade" starring Cary Grant and Audrey Hepburn

December 15th – Christmas Spectacular featuring the most popular holiday film of all time – "It's A Wonderful Life" starring James Stewart and Donna Reed. Last year over 900 people attended the Christmas Spectacular Program, so come early!

December 20th – Santa makes his annual visit to "LIVE From Town Hall", which is broadcast on Cablevision Channels 75, 77 or 78, from 8:00 PM to 10:30 PM every Thursday. Santa will give his "North Pole Report" and take calls from children and adults discussing their gift "wish lists". Aiden Berges and the members of his family will once again be our special guests. Aiden is almost completely recovered from the disease Histiocytosis, which threatened his life several years ago. Many Rockland residents came to his aid and contributed greatly to his recovery.

December 31st – Senior Citizens New Year's Eve Party at the new Senior Citizens Center on Route 202 and Mayer Drive in Suffern and the 2nd Annual Alcohol-Free Family Fest 2007 will take place at the Joseph T. St. Lawrence Center. Both events are free of charge and I will provide specific details of each event next week.
